About the Artist:

Chicago based artist, Laura Berger, uses the female figure as the focus subject of her paintings. She explores themes of unity and human connection in settings of ritual and adventure through her unique illustrative style.

Her work has been featured in The New York Times, In Style Magazine, Marie Claire and Bitch Magazine. She's worked creatively on excellent art projects with The Ace Hotel in Palm Springs, the enormously pervasive shoe maker Vans, and the lifestyles trendsetter Cuyana.

Paintings

An abstract painting featuring stylized human figures in a muted color palette of sage green, dusty rose, and charcoal grey. The figures are rendered in a flat, graphic style with simple outlines and no facial features. They are arranged in a dynamic, overlapping composition that suggests movement and interaction. The background is a mix of these colors, creating a layered, textured effect.
