Spanish street artist Vinz is coming to Amsterdam. 'Rules of Etiquette' is the artist's first solo effort in Amsterdam. He is very prolific, and so we've dreamed up a fun way to keep him and us busy while he is here. On Saturday July 14th, 2012, we will launch a '3 headed dragon' of a show for Vinz. First, we'll have intimate and wonderful collage work at the Battalion space, then bigger 'Street Style' pieces at Andenken Gallery, finally Amsterdam's infamous private carriage house turned gallery, The Garage, will present a series of screen prints from Vinz.

Travel a path of your choosing and have fun visiting all the venues on the evening of the opening. The first 10 visitors to visit all three locations will receive a special gift from the artist.

The BIO:

Vinz was born in 1979 in Valencia, Spain, where he currently lives and works. Feel Free Project was born at the beginning of 2011. Society is in crisis. We're seeing the death throes of the old system, but the new one has yet to be born. Fear, insecurity and an uncertain future feed repression and hinder progress. Time to Feel Free.

Battalion^{*}

Battalion will feature Vinz' highly polished original collage and intimate original pieces, presented in the tastefully curated art and design boutique setting.

Battalion is located at:
Lijbaansgracht 206
1016XA Amsterdam

Open
Wednesday - Sunday
11am - 6pm, open late til 7pm on Saturday

andenken

Andenken Gallery will feature large-scale pieces by Vinz, each nearly 3 meters high, and featuring his trademark gray scale nudes with colourful / tropical animal heads.

Presented in police lineup fashion in the large urban space of Andenken Gallery and available to collectors as wheatpaste prints, easy for collectors to paste or frame.

Look for these large scale wheatpaste pieces to also make appearances in the streets in and around the glorious city of Amsterdam.

Andenken is located at:
Bilderdijkkade 60
Amsterdam

Open
Saturday and Sunday from 11am - 6pm

the garage

The Garage will feature a collection of 8 limited edition screen prints from Vinz, plus a few select drawings.

The infamous private setting in the 17th Century carriage house on the Browsersgracht makes a perfect place to present this graphic arts collection.

The Garage is located at:
Browsersgracht 75
Amsterdam

After the opening, The Garage is open by appointment
