to remain unsubdued or unyielding

The Silver Coast of Portugal, just north of Lisbon. Land of little farms and epic coastlines. The home of giant waves, and soft sandy beaches. Old ways and new ways.

Andenken has embarked on a project to create an oasis within the oasis:
The Holdout.

Short residencies in paradise.

Invited artists will come to The Holdout to create work, visit the sea, explore the area, be inspired.

At the conclusion of the residency, we invite the town folk and host a party and exhibition.

Nearby Rad Places

The coast culture here is about surfing. World class beaches here for the sport, like Nazare, Peniche and Baleal are hot spots, all within half an hour of The Holdout

More secluded, unknown and chill beach spots include Praia D'El Rei's beach, where you take a dirt road to a secret beach, and Azenhas Do Mar, where you can chill in an ocean side pool where the water is continuously refreshed from the waves that pound against the western wall.

The closest 'big' town is Alcobaca, which has everything you need from Tools, to Pharmacy ... Pizza, paint....

The Assignment

Artists that come for a residency at The Holdout will have an exhibition hosted by Andenken at the conclusion of the residency.

10 - 16 works in total is ideal.

The Holdout will provide standard solid wood simple frames for works on paper or panel, in three standard sizes: 30cm x 40cm / 40cm x 50cm / 50cm x 70cm

Although we love it when work gets created here, not all work needs to be created here. To get the best show from each artist, we understand that artists need time to make their best work.

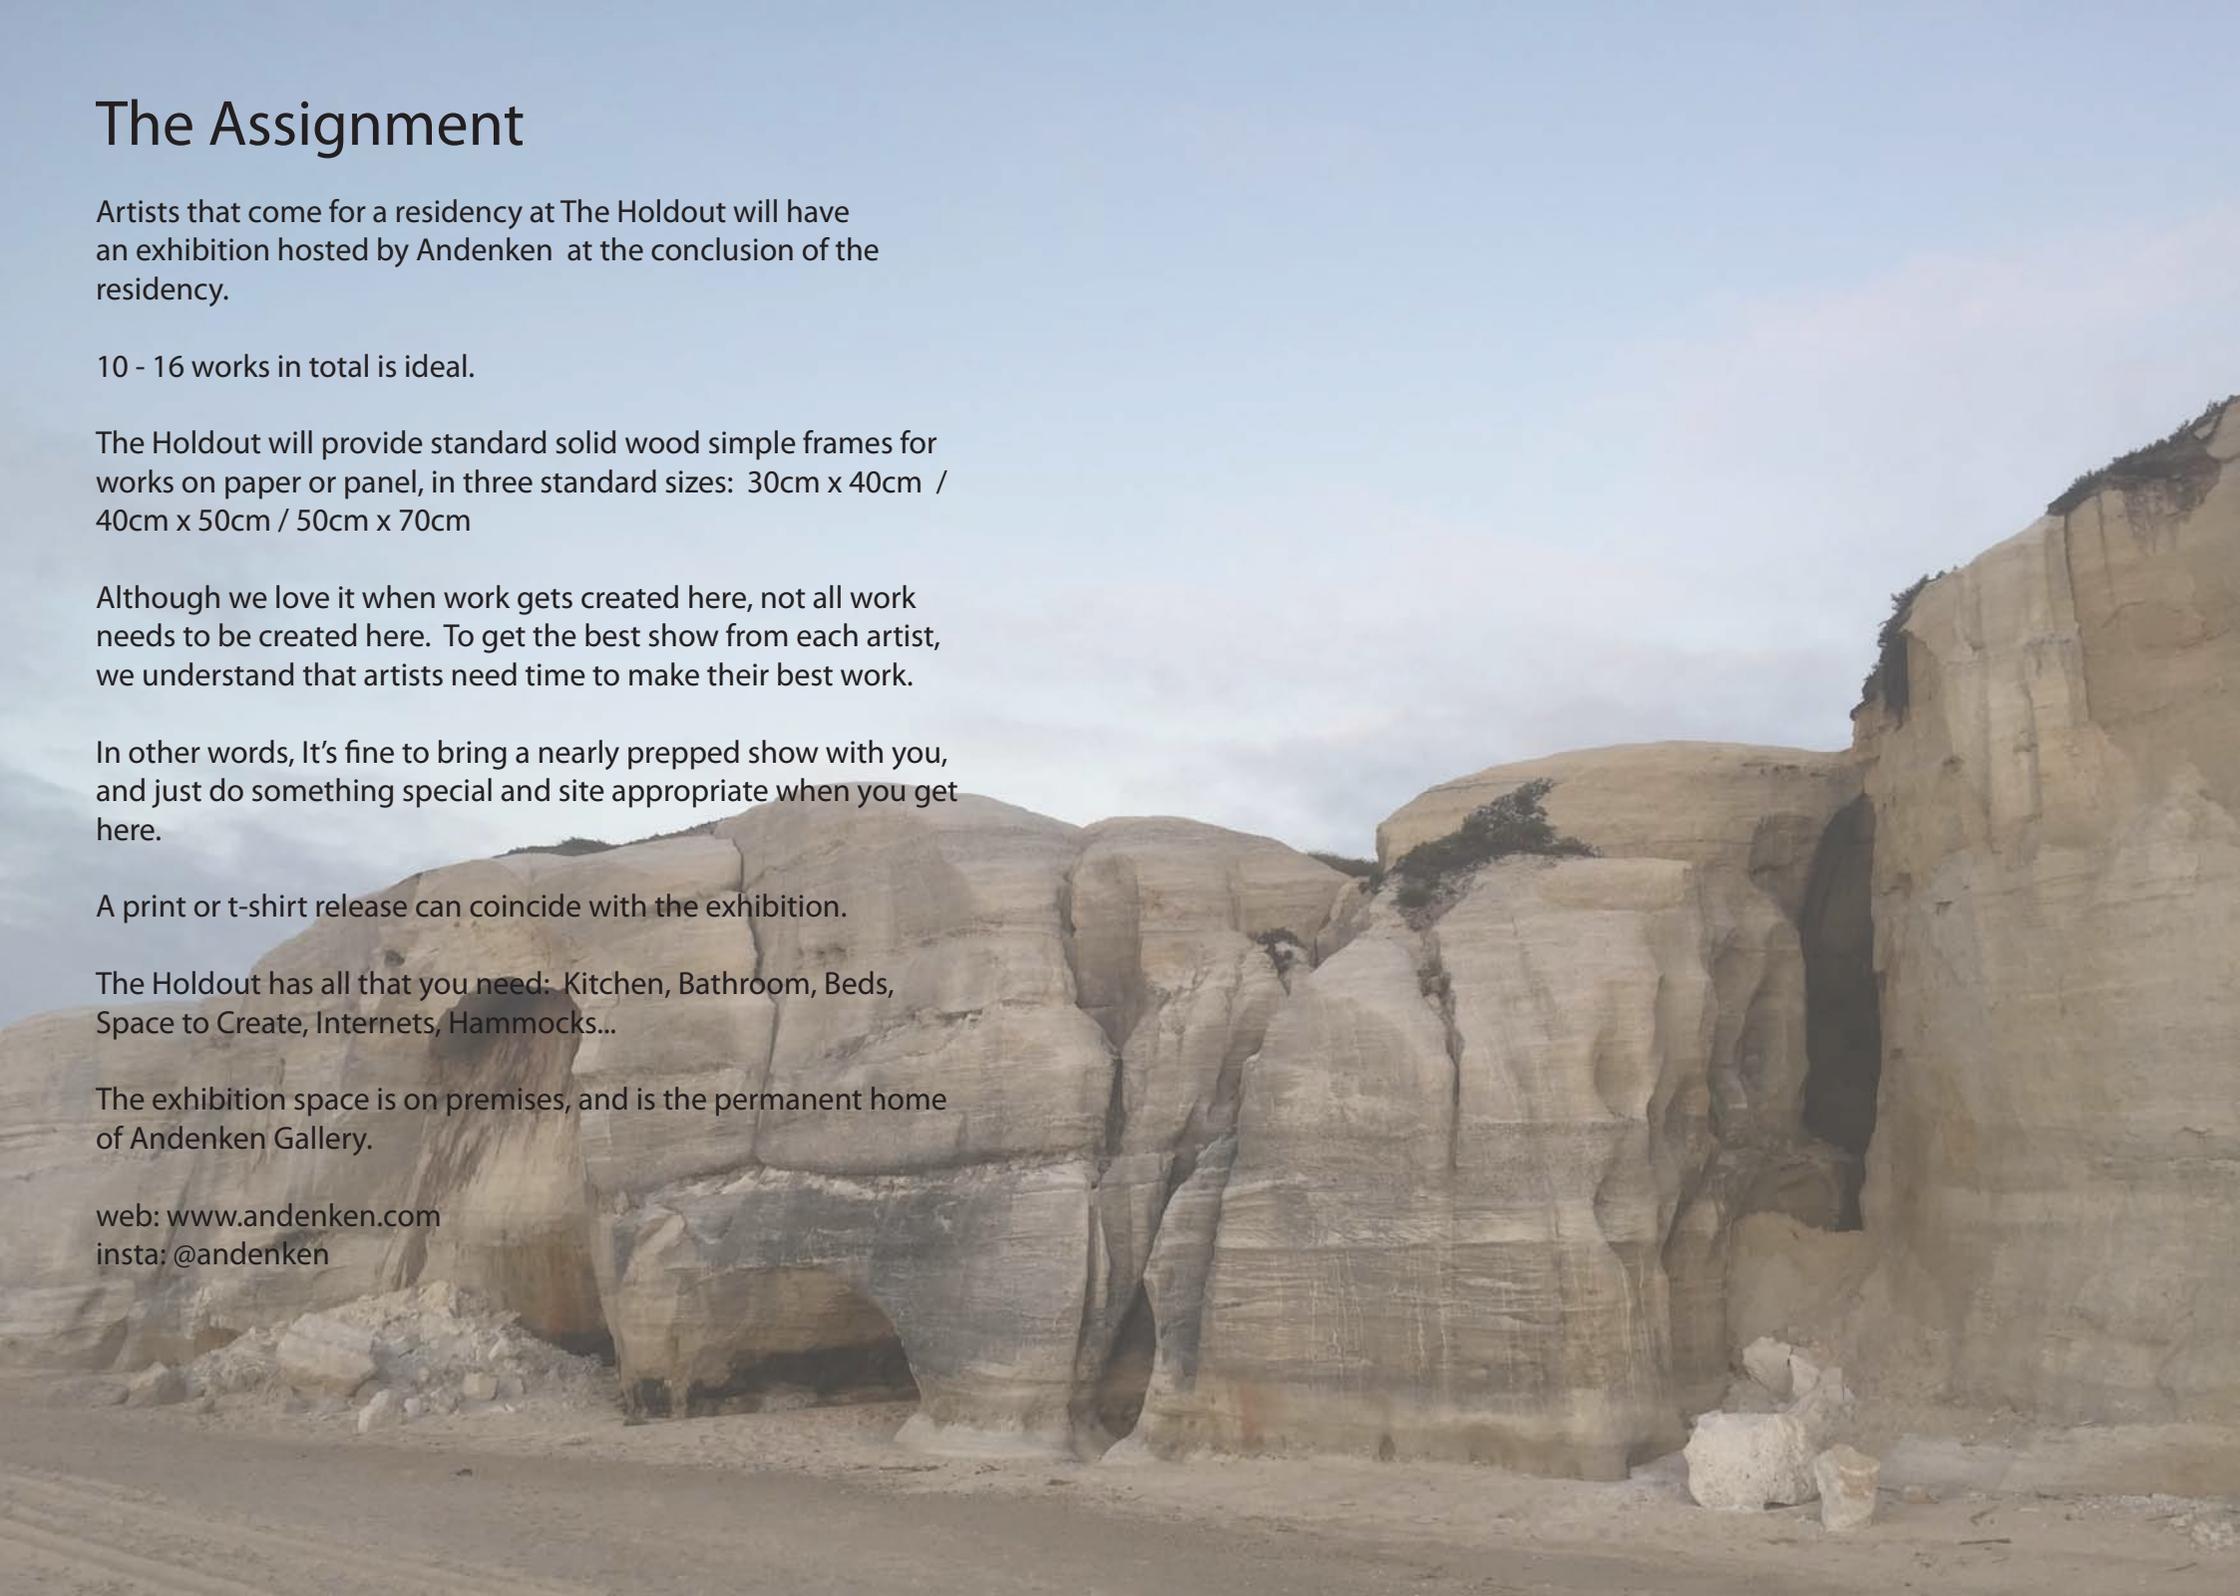

In other words, It's fine to bring a nearly prepped show with you, and just do something special and site appropriate when you get here.

A print or t-shirt release can coincide with the exhibition.

The Holdout has all that you need: Kitchen, Bathroom, Beds, Space to Create, Internets, Hammocks...

The exhibition space is on premises, and is the permanent home of Andenken Gallery.

Reinette Hard Cider

The Holdout is also a functioning farm, with an increasing aim for more and better food production.

We have an apple orchard with 180 trees overlooking a west facing valley. From it, we harvest, press, tank, and ferment our apples into hard cider.
